There is a new quest in Omega Quintet. The mortal heroes will have to obtain the Nuvem Gate and send it to the Nuvem Gate in another world. After they succeed in this mission they will get a new task: to protect the Special Region, a dangerous zone in the game. The heroes will have to go through the whole Atlas again. Now they have to destroy the specters and shadows. But there are more enemies than before. This is a real adventure for the player. I'm not using any hacks or tools, I just play the game how it was made. It's quite fun to use. Looks like somebody is mining for fuel at the moment as there is quite a lot of mining nodes on this planet, I reckon there are a few fuel stations around. If you want to have a go a mining nodes guide is here: - Level 5 - Two days - No deaths - No invasions - A few minions and forces
