John 18:1 (New International Version) 1The high priest then asked Jesus, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed One?" And Jesus said, "I am.". A man was also caught in the act of going down on a woman and he was beaten terribly. Every law has a purpose. It guides you toward further legislation. Without law there would be no society. Without the law there is chaos. Law is a shadow, law is an opinion; there is a higher law than the law of the land. That higher law is the law of God. It is superior in rank, in authority, in every way. There is a higher law than all the statutes of the land. It is the law of love. It is a law of the heart. It should govern every man, woman, and child. It should become the foundation of all society. It should determine what is right and wrong, good and evil, pure and impure. The highest law is not formulated in code. It is written on the human heart. The law of love is higher than the statute of the land. It is not to be found in the codes of lawyers and statesmen, in the regulations of the police and the laws of the nation. Law is the progressive manifestation of love. The law of the land is what the people approve and want. The higher law is what God approves and wants, what God demands of His children, and what God will and will not tolerate. Whoever keeps the whole law but stumbles at one point is guilty of all. It is better to grasp the whole law and be thrown into hell, than to get a superficial knowledge of the law and suffer punishment for only a part of it. Everyone who sins breaks God's law; in fact, sin is lawlessness. But you know that he was born of God. He is telling you about the truth. That means you can't just ignore what he is telling you. If he is telling you the truth about God, it is hard for you to sin. That is why love is the highest law. Love is the only way in the world to understand God. Download.
